

News Archive

30th June - E. coli Outbreak Update

The European Centre for Disease Prevention and Control has reported that E.coli outbreaks in Germany and France could have come from seeds sourced in Egypt.

29th June - Diabetes 'Time Bomb'

The NHS could face a 'Diabetes Time Bomb' according to an audit of patients in England and Wales.

27th June - Cervical Cancer

A summary of Débora Miranda's seven part Guardian series on cervical cancer prevention.

23rd June - History Cold Case

'The Bodies in the Well' - 9pm, 23rd June, BBC 2.

23rd June - Organ Donation

A record 18 million people, nearly one out of every three, now say they are willing to donate their organs.

[22nd June - \[www.e-pathpots.org.uk\]\(http://www.e-pathpots.org.uk\)](#)

A new website providing access to podcasts of classical pathological specimens has been launched.

19th June - Vaccine Hope

A new approach to developing cancer vaccines has been used to treat prostate tumours, an international team of scientists has said.

16th June - Syphilis Screening

Hundreds of thousands of babies' lives could be saved each year if pregnant women were screened for syphilis, researchers say.

15th June - UK Forensic First

3D images derived from post-mortem computed tomography (PMCT) scans have been used as an aid to demonstrate injuries to a jury for the first time in a UK trial.

14th June - World Blood Donor Day

14th June is World Blood Donor Day – a great time for new donors to step forward...

13th June - NHS Future Forum

A press statement from The Royal College of Pathologists on the NHS Future Form report.

10th June - Saviour Siblings Event

Short description: Geneticist Ian Frayling explains how science has enabled the creation of saviour siblings while fertility experts Simon Fishel and Robert Winston discuss the ethical and moral considerations.

8th June - Inside Your Pet

Short description: Veterinary pathologist Alun Williams, as seen on Inside Nature's Giants, discusses the health of our pets.

2nd June - E coli 'resistant to antibiotics'

A strain of E coli spreading across Europe is a previously unseen and more virulent variant of the bacterium, health officials have said.

2nd June - E.coli Outbreak

Russia has banned the import of all fresh vegetables from the European Union following an E. coli outbreak.

27th May - Measles Vaccination Plea

Parents in England and Wales are being urged to have their children vaccinated after a tenfold rise in measles cases in the first four months of 2011.

24th May - Smallpox Decision Deferred

A decision on when to destroy the last known stocks of live smallpox virus has been put off for another three years.

22nd May - 'Born to save Charlie'

In 2003 Michelle Whitaker gave birth to one of Britain's first genetic 'designer' babies.

20th May - Should smallpox be destroyed?

What should happen to the last samples of smallpox left on the planet? Hugh Pennington and Professor Gareth Williams discuss the issue.

12th May - IVF Multiple Births Fall

The proportion of risky multiple births during IVF treatment is falling according to the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Authority (HFEA).

9th May - 'Epidemics and Refuseniks'

The Royal College of Pathologists is co-sponsoring the Sense About Science annual lecture "Epidemics and refuseniks: The birth of state responsibility".

16th February - Zinc Cold News

Taking zinc syrup, tablets or lozenges can lessen the severity and duration of the common cold, experts believe.

5th January - UCAS Pathology News

Students are flocking to practical university courses that lead directly to a job amid fears over a rise in graduate debt.

4th January - Postmortem Update

The number of postmortem examinations carried out in England and Wales is unjustifiably high, according to researchers from the University of Dundee.

2010

A selection of news stories relating to pathology from 2010. Including news from National Pathology Week 2010.

2009 Podcasts

Missed out on National Pathology Week 2009? Why not download a National Pathology Week podcast and listen to some of events held during the week.

Our Events

- NPY Event Registration Form
- Events by Month
- Events by location
- Promotional Materials Request Form
- Pathology in Focus: Photography Competition

©2012 National Pathology Week